April 23, 1927.

Gen. W. A. Collier,
Memphis, Tenn.

Dear Mr. Collier:

I am a descendant of the Colliers of Virginia, or rather of Isaac Collier, who came from England to Virginia along about 1625 to 1630, and whose great-grandson, Vines Collier, came into Georgia in 1786.

I am obtaining all the information possible of the Colliers all over America in order to connect up my colateral, and it appears that during or right after the Revolution one of the Collier boys came to Georgia, one went to North Carolina, one went to Tennessee around Memphis, one went to Mississippi, and another went up into New York State.

I would appreciate it if you could fill in the enclosed blank, going as far back as you can; and if you are unable to do so, then kindly hand it to some of the other Colliers in Memphis.

I was in Memphis about one year ago and intended to call on the Colliers, one or two of whom are lawyers, but for some reason I was unable to do so.

Trusting to have the pleasure of knowing you personally, and if you ever come through this section, do not hesitate to call on me.

Very respectfully,

JCC:S J. C. COLLIER.

Enclosure.